Farage tells Ukip to boot out Carswell

UKIP will kick its only MP out of the party following years of infighting, according to Nigel Farage.

The Eurosceptic party has been plunged into fresh chaos after its former leader called for Douglas Carswell to be ousted for trying to damage it.

Leader Paul Nuttall has asked chairman Paul Oakden to meet the Clacton MP (above) for talks.

Mr Farage, who has been engaged in a long-running feud with Mr Carswell, said the party had come close to expelling the MP before.

He said: "It's not just me. A lot of people have been saying it for a very long time.

"We nearly got rid of him back in 2015 when he sabotaged all my efforts at the European summit.

"We didn't quite have the nerve to do it. I suspect now the party will."

Police chief's plan for paedos

A LEADING child protection officer has suggested paedophiles who view indecent images should NOT be given criminal sanctions unless they pose a physical threat to children.

Simon Bailey, the National Police Chiefs' Council lead for child protection, is reported to have said that lower level offenders should be given counselling and rehabilitation.

Police should focus on the most dangerous paedophiles with access to children and those looking at the most serious images.

SIR SHIFTY COUGHS UP £363M

SETTLEMENT: Sir Philip

SIR Philip Green has paid £363m to settle the pension schemes of collapsed retailer BHS.

The billionaire tycoon said the amount – less than the £571m deficit the firm was left with when it went bust in April last year – represents a "significantly better" outcome than the schemes entering the Pension Protection Fund.

The collapse of the high-street giant left thousands out of work and the deficit in its pension scheme affected 22,000 holders.

News of yesterday's settlement comes after Sir Philip was grilled by MPs over the sale of the chain, which he owned for 15 years before selling it for £1 to former bankrupt Dominic Chappell.

Sir Philip – known in the media as Sir Shifty – said: "I have made a voluntary contribution of up to £363 million to enable the trustees of the BHS pension schemes to achieve a significantly better outcome than the schemes entering the Pension Protection Fund, which was the goal from the outset.

Satisfied

"The settlement follows lengthy, complex discussions with the Pensions Regulator and the PPF, both of which are satisfied with the solution that has been offered.

"To achieve a significantly better outcome than entering the PPF, the contribution required to achieve this long-term solution was arrived at by the actuaries for both The Regulator and the Trustees."

The fallout from the chain's collapse, which impacted 11,000 jobs, sparked a long parliamentary inquiry and left its high-profile former owners potentially facing a criminal investigation.

MPs also called for Green to be stripped of his knighthood.

But Sir Philip said yesterday's settlement brings "this matter to a conclusion" and apologised to the affected pensioners.

He added: "Once again I would like to apologise to the BHS pensioners for this last year of uncertainty, which was clearly never the intention when the business was sold."

WOMAN COP'S SEX WITH GIRL VICTIM IN McDONALD'S LOO

JAILED: Charlotte Peters has also been thrown off the force

By SAM TOBIN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A FEMALE police officer who had sex with a rape victim in a McDonald's toilet has been thrown out of the force.

PC Charlotte Peters, 33, became involved with the vulnerable woman when she was working for the Met's Sexual Offences, Exploitation and Child Abuse Command.

Fingerprints

They first kissed as Peters took the woman's fingerprints before sleeping together at the woman's grandfather's house on February 24 last year.

Peters, of Luton, Beds, refused to leave her partner for the victim and she threatened to kill herself when the victim told staff at the refuge where she had been housed.

The officer was arrested on March 17 after an investigation undertaken by the Directorate of Professional Standards Specialist Investigations team.

Peters, who was on the Sexual Offences Investigative Techniques team, admitted misconduct in a public office.

She turned towards the public gallery and mouthed: "I love you," to her partner as she was jailed for 22 months at Southwark Crown Court in December.

A Metropolitan Police misconduct hearing was told Peters, who has a master's degree in sports science, joined the force in June 2006 and was posted to Islington borough.

She joined the Sexual Offences, Exploitation and Child Abuse Command in July 2015, working as a SOIT officer until her arrest and subsequent suspension.

Her commanding officer, Det Ch Sup Ivan Balhatchet, said Peters was "a popular member of her team" who would have had a "promising career ahead of her".

Assistant Commissioner Martin Hewitt said Peters's conviction "seriously undermines public confidence in the police".

Prosecutor Kate Bex had told the sentencing hearing how the affair was discovered after the victim told staff at the refuge because she was "tired of being her dirty little secret".

The victim told police she was "in love with Ms Peters" adding: "I knew she would get in trouble, but I didn't think there was anything wrong with it."

Peters, of Luton, Beds, admitted one count of misconduct in a public office and gross misconduct and was dismissed without notice.

Stalker left BBC DJ Sara in great fear

A STALKER who admitted placing BBC Radio 2 DJ Sara Cox "in great fear" by sending her letters will be sentenced at Crown Court.

Anthony Collins, 49, had pleaded guilty to harassment relating to notes posted to the 42-year-old host of BBC2's The Great Pottery Throw Down.

Medway Magistrates' Court heard Collins sent the star a series of letters handwritten in felt-tip pen along with a printed photo of Cox (above), referred to in court by her married name Cyzer.

The court was told that Cox's husband also received a handwritten letter.

In addition to admitting harassment, Collins, of Chatham, Kent, pleaded guilty to possessing indecent images and two counts of making indecent images of children.

Collins, appearing in court via video link, told JPs he had "extensive mental health disorders".

He was further remanded in custody to appear for sentencing at Maidstone Crown Court at a future date.

Trump's blast for 'race card'

PRESIDENT Donald Trump accused Oscars host Jimmy Kimmel of "pulling out the race card" because the other side is "losing badly" after the comedian thanked him for making the ceremony look more inclusive.

Trump stayed silent during the star-studded ceremony on Sunday night, failing to reply to the goading tweets Kimmel sent him during the broadcast.

Kimmel had said: "I want to say thank you to Donald Trump. I mean, remember last year when it seemed like the Oscars were racist? It's gone. Thanks to him!"

But during an interview Trump said: "Look, it just seems like the other side, whenever they're losing badly, they always pull out the race card."

VICKY: WHY I LEFT THE SHORE

REALITY TV babe Vicky Pattison left Geordie Shore because she wasn't allowed to read a book about Russia.

Vicky left the MTV show in 2014 and since then has become a recognised face on the small screen but now she's revealed the real reason she left the Toon.

She says she was slammed by the production team when she tried to read a book about Russia and the Second World War during the show's filming.

Vicky (left) said: "I picked up a book and before I knew it, someone came running in, snatched it and ran off,

"This person is saying, 'Vicky's got a book! Where did Vicky get a book from? Get it off her!'

"He was like, 'Vicky, where did you get your book from?' And I said 'WH Smith'.

"He said, 'What are you doing? You can't read a book, it's not on-brand'. And I was like, 'Are you fking joking me? I can't read a book?'

"I was thinking, 'I can't do this anymore!'

"All I wanted was to lie there with my face mask on, in a room where I could see the floor and read my book.

"I think it was about Russia and the Second World War from the Russian perspective.

"I just wanted to grow up and move on."

By JESS GALLEY

The presenter, 49, said: "It began with bumping into Sylvie and she flashed me a smile straight out of one of those French films.

Glowing

"What's changed?" I asked. 'I gave my husband an ultimatum to do the two-week challenge with me', she said, 'you must have sex once a day for 14 days'.

"She had basically been having an affair with her own husband. Her skin was glowing, she had a spring in her step and looked 10 years younger.

"I had sex on my mind for days after I saw her.

"I mentioned the two-week challenge to Derek and he sat down with a spreadsheet, our diaries and multi-coloured pens.

"He made sure that he had his own slot every day."

Pop babe Ariana's bonking in public shocker!

X-RATED: Couples get down and dirty in new pop video

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

SINGER Ariana Grande has released a new vid – and it's crammed full of ROMPING couples!

The 23-year-old pop star unveiled the video for latest single Everyday and left her fans stunned with its racy content.

Ariana is seen writhing around as she belts out the hit surrounded by couples who can't keep their hands off each other – including a lesbian pair who strip down to their bras in a laundrette.

Another couple can be seen shagging on top of a photocopier, and an elderly fella rips open his wife's blouse on a crowded bus while Ariana looks on.

Raunchy

And the lyrics to the former Disney starlet's new song, which also features rapper Future, are as raunchy as the footage.

She warbles: "Everyday, everyday, everyday – he give it to me. Anytime, anywhere, baby boy, I can misbehave. Breathe me in, breathe me out, fill me up. Running through your veins. He giving me that good shit…"

But the lyrics are a far cry from Ariana's other new project, as she has teamed up with crooner John Legend to perform the soundtrack for the live action remake of Beauty and the Beast.

Jealous ex gets 23yrs for double Matalan murder

A CRAZED killer who stabbed his ex-lover and her new partner to death outside the shop where they worked has been jailed.

Andrew Saunders, 21 (above), ambushed Matalan employees Zoe Morgan, 21, and Lee Simmons, 33, as they arrived for work at the store in Cardiff on September 28, 2016.

He bought knives and latex gloves in the days leading up to the double murder and used Google to search for topics including “the easiest way to kill a person” and “how long do murderers serve in prison”.

His final web searches were “how to slice a neck” and “how to smoke a cigar”.

Saunders used two knives to murder Mr Simmons and Miss Morgan, inflicting eight stab wounds on each of his victims.

Mrs Justice Nicola Davies jailed Saunders, of no fixed address, for life and ordered him to serve a minimum of 23 years and four months in prison.

He admitted both murders at a hearing in December.

Post van bomb attack arrest

POLICE have arrested a man over a bomb attack on an army base in Northern Ireland.

The device went off in the back of a postal van inside Palace Barracks in Holywood, Co Down, back in August 2015.

A 42-year-old man was detained by detectives from the Police Service of Northern Ireland’s serious crime branch and was taken to a Belfast city centre police station for questioning, a statement from the force said.

No-one was injured in the attack, which was blamed on dissident republicans, but a few vehicles were damaged.

The Northern Ireland headquarters of MI5 is based on the site.

Dissidents opposed to the peace process have made several attempts using the postal service to target security forces and ministers in the area.

NIC’S OUT FOR THE LADS!

ARE these the most explicit sex scenes of Nicole Kidman’s career?

The Hollywood beauty bares her BUM and BOOBS in new TV drama Big Little Lies.

In astonishing scenes, the 49-year-old actress is roughly taken from behind by her on-screen husband.

And she puts on a sizzling webcam sex show for her horny hubby while he’s away!

Last night, an insider said: “The scenes are extremely explicit. Nicole had no fear.”

The stunning episode was broadcast on US TV channel HBO on Sunday night.

In the drama, ravishing redhead Nic plays abused housewife Celeste Wright.

In one shocking scene, she struggles with violent husband – played by Alexander Skarsgård – before the scuffle turns sexual.

He turns her round, pulls down her pants and takes her from behind in a frenzied consensual romp.

And later, she bares a BOOB while the couple have a saucy chat on Skype, before the action moves to the bedroom and Nicole masturbates on the webcam for her man.

MODEL Caprice Bourret has become the latest casualty on Channel 4’s The Jump – after she was struck down with a ‘mystery illness’.

The 45-year-old missed Sunday night’s show and has now been forced to leave the contest for good.

Host Davina McCall, 49, announced the underwear model was missing on Sunday but sent well wishes to her.

Despite The Jump bosses not confirming what Caprice has come down with, her time on the show is now over.

The blonde babe hasn’t had an easy time on the Austrian slopes, after fracturing her ribs while practicing.

Dangerous

This makes her the third contestant who has been forced to quit the winter sports show, and the latest in a long line of celebrity injuries.

Olympian Bradley Wiggins broke his ankle two weeks ago and Vogue Williams pulled out of the show before it had begun after dislocating her knee.

The Jump is regularly dubbed “the most dangerous show on telly” thanks to a number of celebrities ending up injured.

Current series star Spencer Matthews also dislocated his shoulder during rehearsals.

And former beauty queen Amy Willerton suffered a horrific crash while she was training for the skeleton.

The Jump continues on C4 on Sunday at 6.30pm.

Halle's a skinny dipper!

MOVIE scorcher Halle Berry went SKINNY DIPPING after her night at The Oscars.

The 50-year-old Catwoman actress shared a steamy slow-motion video of herself on social media which showed the star going for a naked swim after the awards ceremony.

In the slo-mo footage, the former Oscar winner ditches the floor-length gown she wore to Tinseltown bash.

Halle posted the footage on Instagram alongside the caption: "After a long award show a girl can't wait to take it off!"

The one-minute clip followed Halle as she made her way down a path to an outdoor pool, set to the backing track of Bruno Mars' song Versace on the Floor.

Halle then seductively slides her dress down and drops it onto the floor, before diving headfirst into the pool in her birthday suit.

Her one million online followers couldn't get enough of the sexy video, as the clip racked up more than 1,100 comments and a whopping 247,000 likes.

However, despite having a hard recovery, it was Mark's hard willy which helped Katie get back to her old self.

Katie said: "Mark loves my short hair and I care less about how my body looks.

SUPERSTARDOM: Paul and Sam eye Stateside move

FORMER TOWIE babe Sam Faiers wants to transform her family into Britain's answer to the Kardashians.

She announced last year she wanted to quit Essex and move across the pond to Los Angeles.

And now she's more determined than ever to make her family a huge name in America.

Sam, 26, travelled to California recently with her 27-year-old boyfriend Paul Knightley and their one-year-old son, Paul.

And her recent visit to the US seems to have confirmed her decision to move there permanently.

A source claims that as well as scouting for houses, Sam met with TV networks as she looks to star in her own US reality show.

The source said: "She had secret meetings with E! and Bravo – who were both very impressed.

"Friends say one of the channels is keen to give her a six-part series to start documenting their new life across the pond.

"Sam's business minded and has always dreamt of turning her and Paul into a showbiz couple, like Kimye.

"She's told Paul they'll become the British Kim and Kanye – even joking she'll make sure baby Paul and Saint become BFFs!"

But her plans to become the British Kardashians hasn't gone down well with either of the pair's families – who want them to stay closer to Essex.

Since leaving TOWIE in 2014, Sam has earned a whopping £5million with her own fashion ranges, her ITVBe series The Mummy Diaries and a book deal.

In the show, boyfriend Paul came in for heavy criticism when he was seen kissing his mum Gaynor full on the lips.

JOHNSON SWEATS ON APPEAL

Shamed footballer trying to overturn child sex conviction

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

SHAMED paedophile footballer Adam Johnson faces a wait to find out if he can challenge his conviction for fingering a besotted 15-year-old fan.

Three judges at the Court of Appeal in London will announce their decision on a date to be fixed following legal argument on his behalf on Tuesday.

The England winger, 29, was jailed for six years in March after a trial at Bradford Crown Court.

Lady Justice Rafferty, Mr Justice Sweeney and the Recorder of Sheffield, Judge Julian Goose, will also give a ruling on a bid by Johnson to win a reduction in his sentence.

The former Sunderland and Manchester City winger's trial heard that he kissed and sexually touched the girl in his Range Rover in a secluded spot in County Durham.

Judge Jonathan Rose, when sentencing, said he was satisfied the girl suffered "severe psychological harm" and that Johnson took advantage of "a young teenager's adoration of a successful celebrity".

The appeal judges heard renewed applications for the go-ahead to challenge both conviction and sentence, following a previous refusal by a single judge.

At the centre of his latest fight against conviction is a criticism that the trial judge "misdirected" the jury on issues of his "credibility".

Representing Johnson at the Court of Appeal, Eleanor Laws QC argued that this must have had "an adverse and unfair impact on the credibility of Adam Johnson in a case where credibility was the central issue, hence the conviction is unsafe".

Johnson admitted grooming the girl at his trial. He was found guilty of sexual touching and cleared of one charge relating to another sexual act.

The appeal judges will rule on a submission that the jail sentence imposed was "too much for this offence".

IT'S MATT LE BLANKED!

Evans 'hasn't spoken to me since he left'

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

TOP Gear presenter Matt LeBlanc says he hasn't spoken to his former co-host Chris Evans since his shock departure from the show.

American actor Matt, 49, and 50-year-old Chris took over the BBC show as part of the revamped line-up last year.

However, Matt (above right) has now revealed he hasn't uttered a word to his former co-presenter after Chris departed the show following heavy criticism.

Matt claims he only found out Chris (right) was quitting the automobile show when he read it in the press and still doesn't really know why he called it quits.

He said: "I did not know what was coming until I read that in the paper.

"Also, I haven't heard from him since – which is his choice.

Tough

"I saw the stories that we weren't getting along and there was a row between us, but we were fine.

"I liked Chris Evans. I think my schedule is tough, but he was doing a radio show every morning and that was a lot to deal with.

"Maybe that was what it was – I honestly don't know."

Top Gear is scheduled to return to BBC screens this Sunday with yet another revamped line-up.

Former Friends star Matt will be joined by Rory Reid, 37, and Chris Harris, 42.

Chris Evans hosts the Breakfast Show on BBC Radio 2.

Some 53 per cent of men have gambled, up from 50 per cent in 2015, and 44 per cent of women, up from 41 per cent.

The poll also found 67 per cent of respondents think people should have the right to gamble when they want, but 69 per cent believe gambling is dangerous for family life and 78 per cent feel there are too many opportunities to gamble.

FOOTIE STAR CLEARED OF GROOMING TEEN GIRL

She performed sex act on him in car

NOT GUILTY: Jack Tuohy

A FORMER League One footballer is looking forward to resuming a "promising career" after he was cleared of sexually taking advantage of a 14-year-old girl.

Jack Tuohy, 20, maintained he believed the girl was aged 16 and denied her claim that she told him her real age.

A jury took just an hour to find the ex-Oldham Athletic midfielder not guilty of a string of sexual offences.

By KIM PILLING
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Tuohy first met the "football-mad" girl at a schools tournament hosted by the English Football League One club in 2015.

Topless

The Crown alleged Tuohy went on to groom the youngster, who sent him a topless selfie pic, through social media, before she performed a sex act on him in his Seat Ibiza car parked in a secluded location in Oldham, Gtr Manchester.

But Tuohy's lawyers suggested it was the girl who initiated contact after the tournament.

Paul Hodgkinson, defending, told Minshull Street Crown Court the Crown's portrayal of his client as a "manipulative" individual who preyed on a "starstruck" and besotted schoolgirl was "nonsense".

He said Tuohy was not "a party animal" but someone on modest wages at Oldham, when the alleged offences were said to have taken place, and who had to observe 10pm curfews.

Tuohy was out of contract and playing for a semi-professional team for £100-a-week.

Mr Hodgkinson put it to the complainant that her account of her telling Tuohy in a conversation on Snapchat she was 14 did not take place.

Tuohy was cleared of two counts of engaging in sexual activity with a child, two counts of causing or inciting a child to engage in sexual activity and one count of meeting with a child following sexual grooming.

Brits who think tuna is a veg

THICK Brits think that eating TUNA counts towards their recommended 'five-a-day' portions of fruit and veg.

A poll of 2,000 Brits found 10 per cent thought the fish – normally sold in tins or steaks – was part of the Government's healthy-eating guideline.

And 4% of those polled also said they thought that turkey counted as one of the five-a-day.

The survey, by Dole Packaged Foods, found that just one-in-10 followed the guidelines of eating at least 400g of fruit and veg each day and that nearly half of those quizzed didn't eat any fruit or veg some days.

KEEN: Ashley had the hots for Brooklyn

By JESS GALLEY

jess@sundaysport.co.uk

LAST week it emerged that Ashley Roberts set her sights on showbiz teen Brooklyn Beckham after laying eyes on him backstage at the BRIT Awards.

Ashley, 35, was said to be so keen to meet David Beckham's eldest son she asked her agent to introduce them.

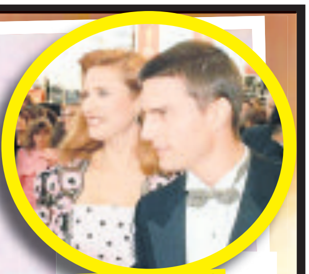
But the former Pussycat Doll, who is 18-years older than 17-year-old Brooklyn, isn't the only celebrity stunna to have cosied up to a younger fella.

One of the most famous age-gap romances in Hollywood is the seven-year marriage of Ashton Kutcher and Demi Moore, who tied the knot in 2005 despite a 16-year difference.

And Love Island host Caroline Flack got plenty of stick too after she had a fling with One Direction crooner Harry Styles when he was just 17.

We've pulled together four pages filled with the fittest female celebs and their toyboy lovers – and most of them have their knockers out!

The babes, that is...



MIMI ROGERS & TOM CRUISE

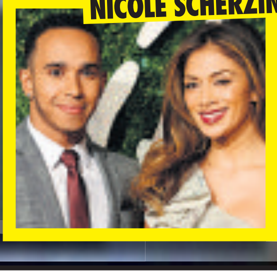
LONG before Nicole Kidman and Katie Holmes Tom Cruise got hitched to cougar Mimi Rogers when he was just 24.

Mimi was 30 at the time and was the person who introduced the Top Gun star to the Church of Scientology, before they got divorced after three years in 1990.

CAROLINE FLACK & HARRY STYLES

TELLY babe Caroline got a load of flak when she hooked up with 17-year-old Harry Styles back in 2011.

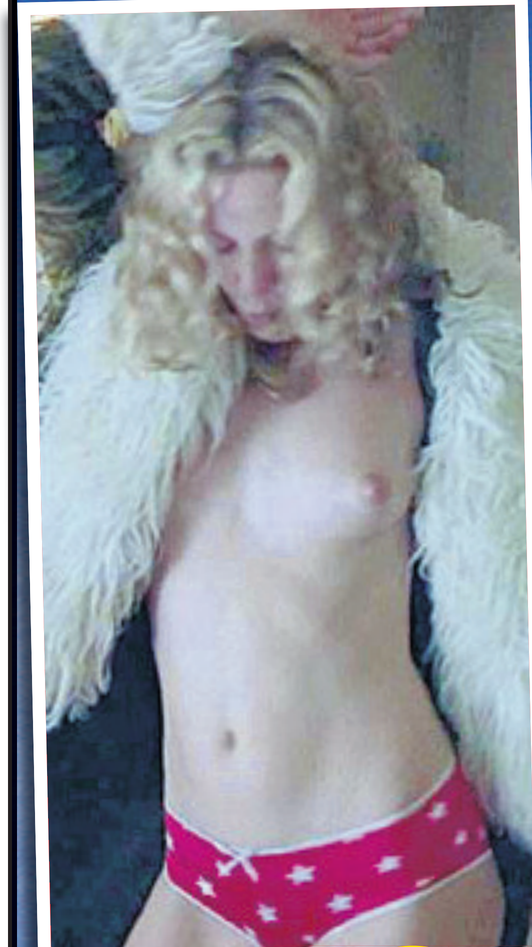
Despite the 14 years between them, the couple dated for three months after they met when Caroline was the face of The Xtra Factor, a year after boyband One Direction were formed on the ITV talent show.



NICOLE SCHERZINGER & LEWIS HAMILTON

PUSSYCAT Doll Nicole Scherzinger, 38, shares her pal Ashley's love of younger blokes and spent three years on the arm of F1 ace Lewis Hamilton, 32.

The pair were an item on and off for eight years, before they finally called time on their relationship in 2015.



KATE HUDSON & NICK JONAS

THIS hot couple were first seen together in September 2015 and were reportedly enjoying a 'no-strings attached' fling for a few months.

Despite things cooling off between them, the two re-ignited their spark in February last year and were spotted on a number of dates.

Nick, 24, described their connection as 'amazing' despite the 13-year age gap between him and 37-year-old stunna Kate.

SUSAN SARANDON & JONATHAN BRICKLIN

OSCAR-winning actress Susan Sarandon broke up with her toyboy boyfriend of six years, Jonathan Bricklin, after they filmed a reality TV series together last year.

Although they had an age gap of a whopping 31 years, 39-year-old Jonathan insisted he never felt embarrassed of his 70-year-old lover.

KATIE PRICE & KIERAN HAYLER

FORMER glamour girl Katie Price, 38, bagged herself a toyboy for her third husband, former stripper Kieran Hayler, 29.

The pair met online and tied the knot just two months later in January 2013, but their wedded bliss was cut short after she found him shagging her two best mates.

After bitter arguments and therapy, their marriage is apparently back on track and they renewed their vows in 2015.

SADIE FROST & JUDE LAW

ACTRESS Sadie Frost, 51, was introduced to Jude Law, 44, in 1994 when they were part of the trendy Primrose Hill Set.

They went on to have three children together and dominated showbiz headlines for a decade before their marriage fell apart in 2003.

SANDRA BULLOCK & RYAN REYNOLDS

NO sooner had he split from Scarlett Johansson, 40-year-old Ryan Reynolds had moved on to Sandra Bullock, 52.

The couple first met on the set of 2009 movie The Proposal but became romantically involved in 2010.

Despite their lovelife not lasting long, the unlikely duo did strike up a friendship which is still going strong today.

4 PAGE SPECIAL

CELEB TOYBOY LOVERS NAKED & TOPLESS!

MADONNA & GUY RITCHIE

THE Queen of Pop was introduced to British film director Guy Ritchie at a party hosted by singer Sting in 1998.

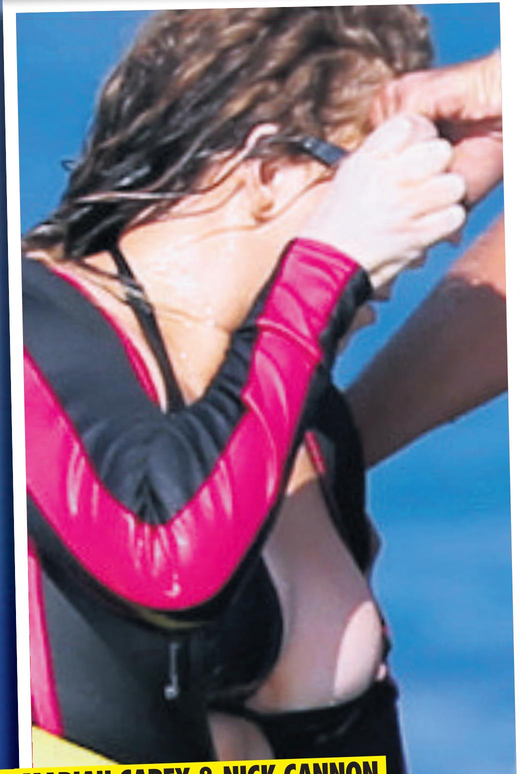
They married in a lavish ceremony in 2000 despite their 10-year age gap, and settled down in Wiltshire.

However, Guy grew tired of their lives together and described it as a 'soap opera' when the pair announced their divorce in 2008.

EVA MENDES & RYAN GOSLING

RED-HOT couple Eva Mendes, 42, and Ryan Gosling, 36, have stayed well clear of the limelight during their six-year relationship.

They were co-stars in 2011 movie The Place Beyond The Pines where their on-screen romps continued off the set.



MARIAH CAREY & NICK CANNON

POP star Mariah Carey, 46, wasted no time in marrying her toyboy lover, former Nickoldeon star Nick Cannon, 36, in 2008.

They'd been dating just six weeks before she took a walk down the aisle and they went on to have twins together before splitting up in 2014.

Not-shaken Ryan tipped for 007 lead

LA La Land star Ryan Gosling may have missed out on an Oscar but his composure during the chaos of the Best Picture gong has thrust him into the running to play the next James Bond.

Gosling, 36, was seen chuckling on stage as it was revealed La La Land had mistakenly been given the biggest award at the Oscars, instead of Moonlight.

The mix-up saw the musical's producers finishing acceptance speeches before La La Land producer Jordan Horowitz revealed the mistake, prompting a moment of panicked chaos on-stage.

In the midst of the confusion, Ryan held his hand up to his face in an attempt to hide his amused giggle.

Bookmakers William Hill have since cut his price to be named the successor to Daniel Craig as 007 from 14/1 to just 10/1.

A William Hill spokesman said: "Ryan Gosling showed an admirable sense of humour and his composure was worthy of Bond – the coolest cucumber of the lot."

Money worries for 2m working Brits

MORE than two million working households in the UK are struggling with money worries, according to Which? estimates.

The consumer group estimates around 2.4m families are working, but their financial situation is very poor.

Nearly two-fifths (38%) of working and struggling households thought their finances would get worse in the next year.

Concerns include levels of household debt, fuel prices, rent or mortgage payments, food prices and levels of household savings and investments.

Which?* 20% of those in working and struggling households had taken a loan or credit card, borrowed money from friends and family or used authorised overdrafts, as well as cutting back.

A huge 40% of those working and struggling had kids aged under 18.

DAVINA'S NUTS ABOUT HERR E. DICK!

CHEERS: Davina serves up X-rated joke

Telly milf's saucy chat

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

TV presenter Davina McCall turned the air blue when she made an X-RATED joke live on Channel 4's The Jump.

Davina, 49, made a crude gaffe about the barman, whose name is Herr E. Dick, during the live episode on Sunday night.

Members of the audience were enjoying the party behind the scenes while the celebs were preparing to compete in the skiing challenges when she came out with the sex joke.

Filthy

Barman Herr E. Dick was busy preparing drinks for the guests when Davina commented on his technique.

She said: "He's emptied his nuts all around the bar, honestly."

Fans were left shocked by her filthy comments, while the studio audience struggled to contain their laughter.

Adrenaline packed reality show The Jump has already seen two celebrities pull out due to severe injury – and there's been plenty more injuries too.

Model Amy Willerton, 24, survived a horrific collision during her Skeleton training and Made In Chelsea's Spencer Matthews, 27, dislocated his shoulder.

Irish model Vogue Williams, 31, and Olympian Bradley Wiggins, 36, both suffered injuries which ruled them out of competing in what has been dubbed 'the most dangerous show on telly'.

Reality show The Jump is filmed in the Austrian resorts of Kuhtai and Innsbruck. It airs on Channel 4 every Sunday at 6.30pm.

AMANDA: COWELL MAKES ME WAX!

MUSIC mogul Simon Cowell likes to have stars Amanda Holden and Alesha Dixon HAIRLESS when they go on Britain's Got Talent.

Amanda, 46 (right), said the strict beauty regime her and fellow 38-year-old judge Alesha have to go through to please Simon, 57.

She revealed they have to be hairless and groomed to within an inch of their lives on his talent show.

But she insisted she doesn't mind the regime, adding: "I shape up, wax my legs, up the glamour.

"Simon has very strict rules about the way women should look – plucked, waxed, made-up and groomed to within an inch of their lives.

"And I agree with him.

"It's the Joan Collins method of growing old glamorously."

ALL-GIRL SEX GANG STEAL VICTIM'S SPERM!

A MAN was kidnapped, drugged and gang-raped by four female 'sperm bandits'.

They left him naked with bruised genitals next to a bush after giving him a lift in a minibus.

The unnamed man, believed to be a teacher in his late 20s, told cops he was sexually molested after the male driver made a detour to supposedly pick up someone else.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A source close to the police investigation said: "The driver suddenly stopped and one of the women quickly covered his eyes while the others held his feet and hands together.

"The man said they forced him to drink a substance from a bottle and he passed out.

"He suspects they took turns to sexually assault him and took away his semen.

"After waking up he put on his clothes, which had been left at the scene, and walked to the main road where he got a lift to the police station."

Cops probing the case in Lupane, Zimbabwe, are treating the incident as aggravated indecent assault.

The man, who was taken to hospital, said he was offered a lift to Bulawayo in a Toyota Quantum with South Africa number plates.

So-called "semen harvesters" first made headlines in 2011 when poincing on motorists on a road between Gweru and Harare.

Three women were arrested with 31 condoms full of semen, which is thought to be used in witchcraft rituals.

Women in Kim bro killing face death

TWO women accused of killing the half-brother of North Korean leader Kim Jong Un with a nerve agent at Kuala Lumpur airport are to be charged with murder, Malaysia's chief prosecutor has said.

Mohamed Apandi Ali said the charges against Indonesian Siti Aisyah and Vietnamese Doan Thi Huong would bring a mandatory death sentence if they are convicted.

Two other suspects in the February 13 killing of Kim Jong Nam have been arrested – a Malaysian who is out on bail and a North Korean who remains in custody.

Authorities are seeking seven other North Korean suspects, four of whom fled the country on the day of Kim Jong Nam's death.

Wife slams hubby's 'ugly cock'

A COUPLE have divorced after the wife moaned about her husband's "small and unattractive" cock.

She branded him useless between the sheets during their childless six-year marriage.

He hit back by comparing her to a lump of wood.

The unnamed woman, a teacher in her late 20s, told a court: "I am tired and sick of this man. He cannot perform as a man. The penis is very small and unattractive."

Her geologist husband claimed his missus "... sleeps like a log of wood and is not romantic."

The marriage in Asaba, Nigeria, was disolved.

FLASH DANCE!

Rio carnival babes whip out their huge boobs

By BECCAS STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

THE world's most famous carnival kicked off at the weekend and an army of Brazilian beauties took to the streets for the Rio Carnival.

A host of sexy stunnas entered the Sambadrone in Rio de Janiero and proudly paraded their fine assets.

Imagination

Some babes went completely topless for their performances, while many more wore barely-there thongs showingcasing their rear ends.

One dancer almost flashed her fanny in an extremely revealing red and silver jewelled one-piece which left little to the imagination.

Rio's yearly party ends today but around a million visitors are expected to have flocked to the sandy beaches of the Brazilian city to see the show.

Walliams pulls under 3m Nightly

ITV's new nightly entertainment show has debuted to fewer than three million viewers.

The Nightly Show, which is being hosted by David Walliams for its first week on air, was watched by 2.9m viewers and a 17 per cent audience share.

Walliams will hand over the presenting reins to comedian John Bishop next week before chef Gordon Ramsay tries his hand at fronting the show.

ITV has pushed its flagship news bulletin back by half an hour to give the programme a 10pm slot in the hopes it will follow in the footsteps of U.S. late night shows such as The Late Late Show with James Corden and The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon.

The ITV News lost 200,000 viewers in its new timeslot as it dropped from an average of 1.8m at 10pm to 1.6m at 10.30pm.

BBC News At Ten maintained the 4.2m viewers it averages.

The Nightly Show will be broadcast five nights a week at 10pm for an eight-week run and will be recorded as live at 6pm the same day.

Alicia SEFRASS

By BECCA STUBBS

becca@sundaysport.co.uk

IN her kinky get-up Alicia Sefrass makes the perfect pin-up – but she loves men ogling her curvy figure.

Alicia, 24, says men often stare at her but instead of being offended, she loves the attention she attracts from the opposite sex.

Thong

The London-born bondage babe looks sensational in her cut-out leather look bra and tiny PVC thong.

She said: “I popped to the shop the other day to get a pint of milk. I didn’t have any make-up on and I was covered up in thick, warm clothing.

“But a well-dressed man stopped in his tracks and stared at me.

“It’s very flattering. And, of course, I’m not offended. I’m a model – I get paid for people to look at me.”

WOMAN SHOOTS LOVER IN HIS COCK 'N BALLS!

She suspected affair

A WOMAN who shot her boyfriend in the genitals told police she suspected that he was cheating on her.

Delia Mary Flores, 53, shot her fella SEVEN times with a revolver – firing one shot into his penis and then twice into his scrotum, according to court documents.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The victim told police he was sleeping upright in a chair when he woke up to what he thought were fireworks – until he felt an "excruciating pain around his lower extremities".

Cops were called and Flores then admitted the attack to them.

She had moved in with her boyfriend last year after they had been dating for two years.

Her lover told officers that he wasn't having an affair and didn't know why she had shot him.

He didn't even think Flores knew how to use a gun, police said.

When cops searched the couple's home in Scottsdale, Arizona, they found a revolver hidden in a Victoria's Secret bag, along with a receipt that showed the gun had been purchased just 10 days before the shooting.

Flores faces charges of attempted murder and aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

Robbie's online ratings scam!

MATCH of the Day star Robbie Savage has revealed he used to post on fan message boards under an alias.

The controversial commentator admitted he was insecure about what supporters would say about him.

Welsh BBC and BT Sport pundit Robbie played in the Premier League for over 10 years, and also for Derby.

He said: "I was the most insecure person ever, to the point where when I signed for Derby and was having a shocker, you know those chat boards? I made up a name, went on them and used to say, 'Robbie played well today, didn't he.

"Seriously, I was that insecure I used to phone newspaper reporters up if I got a six or a five in the paper and say 'what are you talking about, what game were you at?

"I'd have the best game in the world and I'd still think, am I going to be playing next week?"

Police boss's son jailed for groping WPCs

A FORMER Labour police and crime commissioner's son has been jailed for 22 months... for GROPING two female cops.

Pervert Faisal Master (above), 30, is the son of respected Labour party activist Ibrahim Master – the former Lancashire Deputy Police and Crime Commissoner.

Petrol station manager Faisal, a married father-of-three, sexually assaulted the first WPC in 2013 when she came to investigate a petrol theft.

Preston Crown Court heard in 2014 he then groped a second WPC at the garage when she too came to probe claims of another fuel theft.

Then in April 2016 he targeted a third woman at a sports club, grabbing her breast as she left the ladies' loo.

Desperate to avoid "shaming" his family, he later contacted two of his female victims to bribe them to drop their complaints.

The judge told him: "These offences were so serious that only an immediate custodial sentence can be justified."

Texts to get new drivers road ban

NEW drivers face losing their licence the first time they are caught using a phone behind the wheel illegally.

Penalties and fines for offenders will be doubled to six points and £200 respectively from today.

The new measures are being introduced following a series of high-profile cases, and research suggesting the practice is widespread.

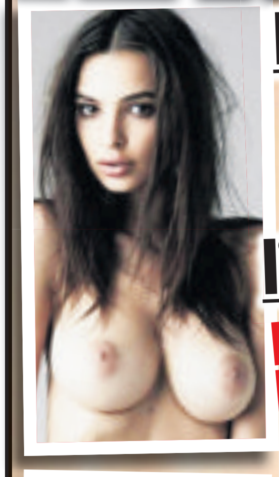
New drivers can have their licence revoked if they get six penalty points in their first two years on the road, which could now be the result of sending a single text.

More experienced motorists can lose their licence if they receive 12 points in a three-year period.

Transport Secretary Chris Grayling said increasing fixed penalties will be a "strong deterrent".

RATA'S A KLASS ACT!

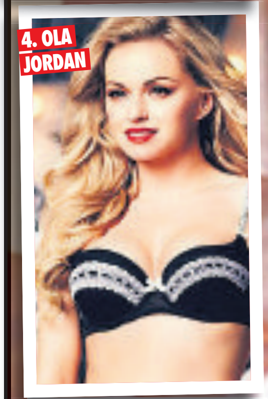
Emily pips Myleene in online lingerie poll



1. EMILY RATAJKOWSKI

2. MYLEENE KLASS

3. GEMMA ATKINSON



4. OLA JORDAN

5. SARAH HARDING

By JESS GALLEY

jess@sundaysport.co.uk

BLURRED Lines* scorcher Emily Ratajkowski is the celebrity most fellas would like to see stripped down to her undies.

In an online poll, the 25-year-old model and actress narrowly beat Myleene Klass to bag the top spot as the showbiz babe who looks best in lingerie.

Former Hear'Say star Myleene, 38, was hot on Emily's heels in second place, followed by soap scorcher Gemma Atkinson in third.

Ladsmag favourite Gemma, 32, became famous for her eye-watering knockers after starring as schoolgirl Lisa on Channel 4 soap Hollyoaks.

Strictly stunna Ola Jordan, 34, who recently teamed up with lingerie firm Ann Summers, took the fourth spot on the list – no doubt thanks to her recent appearance in her bikini on I'm A Celebrity...Get Me Out Of Here!

Girls Aloud babe Sarah Harding, 35, beat off all her former bandmates, including mum-to-be Cheryl, and made it into the top five.

Linsey Dawn McKenzie

SHE'S BRITAIN'S ONLY TOPLESS COLUMNIST

AIRED HEADS: Danielle and Jamie

SOMEONE needs to have a word with Danielle Lloyd and Jamie O'Hara.

I know that every aspect of their marriage and divorce has been so public, but they really need to stop airing all of their dirty laundry to the world.

I can understand why they feel like they need to retaliate when one of them slags the other off, but posting emails and making nasty digs at each other on Twitter or during interviews really isn't the way to solve anything.

Living in the public eye can be really tough, but nothing good usually comes from making your business so public.

I think Danielle should move on with her fiancé, build a happy life with him and she and Jamie should both keep a dignified silence rather than battling it out on social media.

Os-CAR crash TV!

SOMEONE is definitely going to get the sack after Sunday night's Oscars gaffe!

When it got to the Best Picture award, I think everyone was expecting La La Land to win because it had been so hyped up.

Awful

But when the producer said "There has been a mistake", as awful and cringeworthy as it was, it actually livened up the show!

I felt so sorry for the cast and crew of La La Land who were already stood up on stage.

I mean, how embarrassing must it be to stand up there and give a speech – only to find out that you haven't actually won.

I don't think they will lose too much sleep over the loss though as they did bag another six awards – and Moonlight really deserved it.

WHEN is Donald Trump going to stop acting like a spoilt child and realise that he can't just throw his toys out of the pram whenever he doesn't like something.

I was actually stunned when I heard that he had banned several news organisations from attending a press briefing at the White House.

As the President of the United States he needs to be held accountable by the people, and if no one is allowed to report on what he's doing then how can that happen?!

It's a scary prospect that he could control every piece of information that is revealed to the public by restricting press access. It's the thin edge of a very dangerous wedge.

EXCITING TIMES AHEAD!

I'M really excited at the prospect of hosting the Paul Raymond Awards later this year, after being honoured with the Lifetime Achievement Award last year.

I had such a great time hosting the UKAP Awards last summer that I jumped at the chance to take to the stage again, and really hope I do get to do it!

That's not the only exciting news I have to share with you this week though, as I am also in talks to do my first cover shoot in what seems like forever. Watch this space!

GLOWING: Cheryl with her fella Liam Payne

AFTER keeping everyone guessing for months, Cheryl finally unveiled her huge baby bump last week in a new campaign for The Prince's Trust.

I think she looked absolutely incredible though, and the extra pregnancy weight she's put on really suits her – she looks so healthy and really is glowing!

It can't be long until she's due and I hope she doesn't keep us all waiting as long to see the baby as she did with announcing that she was expecting!

TOWIE babe Amber Dowding made sure all eyes were on her in this BOOB-BARING blue outfit.

The 23-year-old reality stunna showed off her incredible abs and plenty of cleavage in the wrap-style top, which flashed a whole load of under-boob.

Amber wore the show-stopping kit for the launch of a beauty salon in Essex at the weekend.

SON'S PORK CHOP RAGE AT MUM WHO FORGOT CIGS

A MAN attacked his mum with a PORK CHOP because she forgot to buy him a pack of cigs.

Terry Bernard Ball, 29, was nicked by police after clobbering her with the lump of meat.

RAGE: Ball butted mum

Scoffing

He flew into a rage when his mum returned from a trip to the shops and had forgotten to buy him a packet of fags.

Ball was scoffing his tea when his mum, 60, returned.

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

After lobbing the chop from his plate at her, Ball then got up and head-butted her during the violent outburst.

His father intervened and jumped on top of his son to restrain him until the police arrived at their home in Athens, Georgia, and arrested Ball.

Investigators said that the attack took place at 7:30pm on Monday evening. Police said Ball was arrested for simple battery and was also charged with a probation violation from a prior case which was lodged six months previously.

Ball was sentenced to 12 months on probation for the previous charge when he reportedly smacked a man in the face for no apparent reason whilst he was pissed.

According to the cops, Ball has previous, with more than a dozen cases for assault dating back to 2008, and has a charge pending from 2013 when he was allegedly involved in a domestic dispute.

STUDENT'S 3-SOME RAPE LIES 'TO IMPRESS BOY'

A PRETTY university student is facing five years in jail after enjoying a THREESOME in a bathroom – then crying rape.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Nikki Yovino romped with two lads at a party held by the uni's football team.

But he 18-year-old later claimed the duo had taken turns to sexually assault her.

Now she's admitted she made up the allegations against the two football players in a bizarre bid to attract another teenager.

Yovino's lawyer Mark Sherman said: "The details of what happened here will come out at the appropriate time during the court process."

The woman made a sexual assault complaint after she attended a party for the Sacred Heart University American Football team at a house in Bridgeport, Connecticut.

She told how two men pulled her into a bathroom in the basement of the house and held her down, taking turns sexually assaulting her. She claimed she told them: "I don't want to be in here, I don't want to do anything. My friends are waiting for me outside, let me go outside."

Both men admitted having sex with Yovino but claimed it was all consensual.

Willingly

Police Detective Walberto Cotto later questioned her after other students said it appeared Yovino went into the bathroom willingly with the two men.

One witness said he overheard her telling the men she wanted to have sex with them.

When she was pressed about the inconsistencies in her original police statement, Yovino admitted that she made up the rape allegations because she "didn't want to lose another teen student as a friend and potential boyfriend."

Yovino, who is a student of psychology, is now facing a long spell in prison on charges of tampering with evidence.

It had been alleged that the two lads had been kicked out of the uni, but as it stands both are still there, though one has been dropped as a member of the football team.

University spokesperson Kim Primcerio said: "Sacred Heart never expelled the two students nor was any student stripped of scholarships because of any allegations.

"Whenever there is any kind of incident at Sacred Heart University, we go to great lengths to ensure due process for all parties involved.

"The way that this particular case is playing out certainly demonstrates the validity of our procedures."

CBB's Jez set to meet exes on the beach

CELEBRITY Big Brother star Jeremy McConnell has signed up for the next series of Ex On The Beach.

The 27-year-old reality star (above) might have just buried the hatchet with the mother of his baby son, Stephanie Davis, but he will soon be jetting off to film the MTV dating show.

An inside source revealed that Jeremy has been on the bosses' Most Wanted list ever since he shot to fame thanks to his rocky relationship with the former Hollyoaks babe, who he met in the Big Brother house.

A source said: "MTV bosses have wanted to get Jez on the show for years but finally they've signed him up.

"He's the ultimate lad, and producers know it's a dead cert that he'll charm the ladies, have a good craic with the boys and be a hit with viewers.

"Everyone knows he's a bit of a ladies' man but it'll be astounding to see just how many exes come out of the sea for him."

It's time singles made an effort to bonk more

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

COUPLES living together but who aren't married are the horniest group of people in the country.

New research has shown they are getting down and dirty almost three times a week.

That means that couples, who don't yet have all the complications of married life, bonk a whopping 146 times every year.

However, it's still pretty good news for those who are married as they get frisky around 98 times a year, which works out as a romp nearly twice a week.

Active

But it's bad news for lonely singletons though as their sex lives are understandably nowhere near as active as people in a relationship.

In fact, single people don't even get to shag once a week and experience half the action that married couples have – just 49 romps each year.

The study, complied by the Kinsey Institute, looked into the sex habits of single people, married couples and couples not yet married but living together.

Married women revealed that 48 per cent of women still want regular shagging action four years into their marriage.

Sport stunna Chantelle Ford reckons that single people need to get their act sorted and go out and have more sexual fun.

She said: "Single people get the least amount of sex? The people they asked need to get out there and look for it.

Shags

"Everyone presumes that married couples get the least action but they get double the romps that single people do so they're doing something right between the sheets!

"I think it depends on the person too, if you're single you've got no ties to anyone so these people need to get out there, enjoy themselves and have a little experiment.

"I'm single but I make sure I get regular shags. I hate going without sex but if I want a quick bonk, I'll go out and find a man – or a woman!

"This research clearly hasn't asked me because I'm single and I get friskier than any of these groups!"

Follow three Golden rules to make her climax, lads

Carrie Rothwell says...

> 'THANK God that someone's finally telling blokes how to make women cum. This works for me every time and the more men know about it the better.'

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

STRAIGHT women are the least likely to have an orgasm through sex but don't worry, boffins have discovered exactly what makes them cum.

Researchers reckon they've found the top tip to help women orgasm and they've dubbed it the 'Golden Trio' of moves.

A new study suggests the combination of kissing, genital stimulation and oral sex are the key to unlocking a women's 'Big O'.

Shagging

Over 50,000 people from different genders and sexual orientation were quizzed by Chapman University, Indiana University and the famous Kinsey Institute.

It comes as researchers found that although 95 per cent of straight blokes cum through sex, only 65 per cent of women are left satisfied after shagging.

However, they've also revealed their 'Golden Trio' of sex secrets which 80 per cent of women said makes them reach peak pleasure everytime.

The 'Golden Trio' helps women cum without having sex and they reckon a lot of snogging, touching as well as a tongue lashing can get them on their way.

Professor Elizabeth Lloyd, one of the authors of the study said: "About 30 per cent of men actually think intercourse is the best way for women to have orgasm.

"That is sort of a tragic figure because it couldn't be more incorrect. To say that there needs to be some education I think is an understatement."

Explicit

Published in the journal Archives of Sexual Behaviour, a team of scientists surveyed more than 52,000 people between the ages of 18 and 65.

Only 35 per cent of straight females said they always cum during vaginal sex but a huge 44 per cent of them said they'd never climaxed through sex alone.

Although, playing music, changing positions and hearing their man say 'I love you' increased the chances of a woman having an orgasm through sex by 20 per cent.

David Frederick, lead author of the research from Chapman University said: "Women really are tremendously variable in how readily they orgasm.

"What makes one woman orgasm can be quite different than what makes another woman orgasm, explicit and direct communication with one's partner is key."

Victoria Dunn says...

I THINK I'm one of the lucky ones, I orgasm through sex and the 'Golden Trio' and either way it always feels pretty incredible!

Gia Lashey says...

I'VE been left unsatisfied after a quick shag far too many times but there's always your own hands, girls! Maybe now I can find a bloke that'll make me retire my toys.

‘Bonking in the snow wearing only a furry hat and furry boots’

MY SEX FANTASY …WITH ANNIE BULLAH

By WENDY THOMAS

news@sundaysport.co.uk

BUSTY Annie Bullah is hoping winter isn’t over just yet.. as she lusts after shagging in the SNOW!

The gorgeous model isn’t put off that her NIPS would be like bullets – and plans to wear just a furry hat and furry boots.

The 26 -year-old, from Loughton, Essex, also revealed she had her 32A boobs boosted to a whopping 32F.

She said: “This is really weird, but one of the things I’d love to do is to have sex in the snow.

“I’d love to wear just a furry hat and a pair of furry boots and get down to it.

“I’m not sure if the snow might be too cold on my bum though, and when I told my boyfriend about it he said his willy might get a bit chilly.

“I wanted to do it last year, but I was ill when it really snowed.

Horny

“I’m hoping I can have my fantasy one day.”

Adventurous Annie has form for getting down and dirty outdoors, where she could get caught out.

She said: “I once had sex in a park. Me and my boyfriend were feeling really horny and couldn’t wait until we got home, so we got down to it on the grass. It was great fun!

“I’m pretty lucky I’ve never been caught having sex. I would be mortified.”

When asked her best talent in the bedroom, Annie said: “Well, I have to say I have a very talented mouth, if you know what I mean.

“I like to take my time and really tease a guy and take it very slowly. The build-up is the best part, apparently.

“I have always been told my technique is mind-blowing.”

Now that would get your willy warm in the snow!

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Kelly,

I'VE recently started a new job as a practice nurse at a GP's surgery. I thought I'd seen just about everything but I've made a fool of myself with one of the male patients.

He came in to a well-man clinic and when he dropped his pants he wasn't wearing undercrackers. And hanging between his legs was the biggest penis I'd ever clapped eyes on.

This is where the problem started. Despite years of training to keep things impersonal, I dropped to my knees and took his growing shaft in my hands.

I licked his now rigid ramrod up and down and took his bellend in my gob. It glistened and pulsed as I encircled it with my lips, then he suddenly pulled away and shot a spurt of cum right across the room.

That would have been the end of it, but he's taken to following me home from the surgery and I'm a bit worried that he may want a relationship.

I can't tell the practice manager or I'll be suspended or sacked.

DC, Lancs

Kelly says…

IT'S a difficult one – but you simply have to take the bull by the horns, tell him it was a one-off and mean it.

Dear Kelly,

I MET a wonderful girl recently who's 21 with long dark hair, fabulous boobs and a smile that melts my heart.

On our first date we went out for a meal and on to a club and she was happy to come back to my place, but all she'd let me do was fondle her tits.

We went out again and, although we had a great time, I was not able to advance beyond first base.

But finally, after our seventh date, she must have realised that I was desperate and she released all my pent-up passion by grabbing my seven-incher, squeezing my balls and sucking me off. She didn't swallow, but I didn't hold that against her.

This continued on our subsequent dates. I'd fondle her tits, while she would lick and suck me to completion.

At long last we ended up in bed – where I discovered she had the hairiest fanny I've ever encountered. It was like shagging a sheep.

How can I tell her to get a trim without offending her?

GC, west Midlands

Kelly says…

TELL her you're going for a back, crack and sack wax and suggest she goes with you for a trim at the same time.

Busty blonde had me bubbling over in bath

Dear Kelly,

I'M a plumber and have met many frustrated housewives over the years.

Sometimes I get my plunger out and check out their pipes.

The fittest bird I've ever done while on a job was when I went to fit a new bathroom in a house in the posh part of town.

I knew she was up for some fun. Blonde, busty and in her mid-40s, she chatted to me as I worked and teased me about her husband being away a lot.

When I'd finished the job, she said she'd like to test the bath and stripped down to stockings and suspenders and handed me a bottle of champagne.

She filled the bath and then I filled her until I popped my cork. I then opened the champagne and poured the contents over her boobs.

After watching her splashing around for a bit, I climbed in beside her.

With my rampant thrusting, the bath soon looked more like one of those fancy spa baths.

I've seen this woman a few times since and the sex is great. The problem is that she now wants to divorce her husband and move in with me.

I've no intention of leaving my wife. What should I do?

TM, Herts

Kelly says…

JUST check your wife's pipes from now on.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week KELLY McGREGOR has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you…

Cheat wife hooked on 'Donkey Dick'

Dear Kelly,

I'M a 28-year-old woman and although I love my husband, our sex life has become dull.

I make all the right noises when we make love, but I never climax these days and I'm very frustrated as a result.

One reason may be that my husband works away a lot and we have to fit our nookie in as and when we can.

I work in the office of a small electrical factory. As the only woman among a dozen men, I'm always being propositioned for sexual favours.

One of the younger blokes isn't really very attractive – but he does have the nickname of "Donkey Dick".

Whenever the lads are boasting about their sexual exploits at work, he often gets a hard-on with a massive bulge sticking from the front of his trousers.

Recently, I bought a sunbed and I needed an extra socket installing in my spare room for it.

As a joke – and to wind up the other lads – I asked "Donkey" if he could come round and fit one while my husband was abroad.

Well, he came round that same night after work and had the socket fitted in a jiffy.

Then he insisted on setting up the sunbed to make sure it was working safely and asked me to get into my bikini and try it out.

As soon as he saw me in my itsy-bitsy swimwear his manhood shot up and the bulge in his overalls was so prominent that I burst out laughing.

Pumped

He looked so hurt by my reaction that I grabbed hold of it with both hands and told him it was very impressive.

Then I led him by the hand to the bedroom and told him to strip off.

I sat back on the bed and admired his toned physique and incredibly big knob – it was easily the biggest I'd ever seen in the flesh.

I told him to lie down on the bed next to me. Then I got two hands around his thick tool and slowly pumped both fists to get him even harder.

After a spot of oral on it – I could barely get his helmet in my mouth, never mind any of his length – I told him to lick me out and finger me for a while, to lube me up and brace myself for his wood.

The sex was fast and frantic and was the most satisfying I'd had in years.

He calls round every week now. I don't fancy him but his cock is too good to miss.

I know I'm cheating on my hubby, but it's a case of "no-strings attached" fun rumpy-pumpy, so I don't feel guilty.

What do you think?

GJ, East Midlands

Kelly says…

AS long as you and your lover both accept that your relationship is about sex and nothing else, and you keep it that way, your marriage should survive, I guess.

I had cheeky wk as wife bonked boss

Dear Kelly,

LAST week I came home from work early and caught my wife being boned by her boss.

They didn't see me, so I watched them silently as she sucked his cock before he exploded all over her sweet face.

He then fked her hard and fast from behind while asking her, 'Who's your boss?'.

To which she replied, 'You are – you're my dirty boss'.

He was pounding away at her, pulling her hair and I could hear his balls slapping against her arse.

To my shame, the longer I watched the more I got turned on and I had a cheeky wank while she got on top and rode him.

Her 34DDs bounced all over the place as she rode his big Johnson and I soon shot my bolt, being careful not to make any loud gasping sounds.

After I'd cleaned myself up, I sneaked out of the house without being detected.

I wasn't going to mention it, but the next day I told her about what I had seen.

She casually announced that she'd been shagging him for ages – but only because he's offered her a huge pay rise and we could do with the money.

I told her that I'd really enjoyed watching her being fked like that and how I would love to have a threesome with her and her gaffer.

She was shocked at first, but she asked her boss and he's up for it.

In fact, he's given her another pay rise on top of the original amount – which means we can have two holidays this year!

Do you think I'm a bit of a pervert for letting my missus do this?

TP, Cornwall

Kelly says…

NO – and with more money, everyone's a winner.

AGONY QUICKIES

Dear Kelly,

MY mate works away on the rigs so I often see his girl at our local and we have a laugh.

The other night she was feeling a bit lonely and invited me back to their place to watch a film.

She's a cracking girl, with fantastic tits, an arse to die for and legs that go on forever.

I've punched a few cheeky ones out about her, but I would never dream of making a move on her because she's my mate's lass.

Anyway, she went to make coffee after switching the telly on, but a vid left in the machine started playing.

Two blokes were shagging a blonde in both holes and it was really horny stuff.

When she walked in, she didn't turn a hair and, without warning, grabbed my cock and sucked me off.

It was amazing and I couldn't help but shoot my load down her throat.

But how can I ever face my mate now?

RF, Teesside

Kelly says…

JUST get stuck in – he'll never know.

RHINO BABE OF THE WEEK

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

GORGEOUS Jaade has revealed what it takes to get her pulse racing between the sheets.

The 19-year-old stunna, from Oxfordshire, is looking for a fella who knows what he's doing in the bedroom and isn't afraid to take the reins.

Blonde beauty Jaade told us she loves having her neck kissed and has a thing for footballers, especially the players for her favourite team Chelsea.

She said: "I love a man who knows what he's doing and can take control and show me a thing or two.

"I do like to mix things up and take control myself though – I think it's so hot and really gets me going.

"My perfect man needs to have a good sense of style and take pride in how he looks.

Saucy

"And he could win me over by taking me for a meal at a nice restaurant, followed by drinks – and then who knows!"

As well as spilling her saucy secrets, Jaade stripped off and whipped out her perky 32Bs for this saucy shoot in honour of being named our Spearmint Rhino Girl of the Week.

Spearmint Rhino has a number of gentleman's clubs around the world which boast the most beautiful dancers.

But if you can't make it to one of those venues, you can find Spearmint Rhino girls at boxing and Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) fights around the country, or at the British Superbike Rounds.

LESBIAN BACHELORETTE
R18

For Buttworks those clever chaps at Vivid took a bunch of babes (including Remy LaCroix and Jessie Volt) to the beach then brought in some of the biggest-dicker studs in the business, handed them a gallon of lube and let them get at it. The sound of the waves crashing against the shore is only disturbed by the smack of bollock against peachy ass and and regular orgasmic outbursts. Aleksa gets it on the stairs, Mia in the hallway, Remy in the living room and Aria has her brown eye opened in the bedroom. You can always smell the ocean – and the mine – from your telly.

Next up is Lesbian Batchelorette, two hours of passion and ecstasy from the ever-reliable Viv Thomas. With the flick of a tongue or the twitch of a finger these beauties know how to make their partners come over and over again.

CHELTENHAM FESTIVAL – JUST 13 DAYS TO GO!

Douvan has the class to eclipse star Fly

MULLINS MAKES BIG CLAIM AS CHASER HUNTS TREBLE

FESTIVAL FANCIES: Douvan and Ruby Walsh

By MIKE FRANCIS

WILLIE Mullins believes Douvan could be the best horse he's ever trained.

The chaser already has two Cheltenham Festival wins under his belt — and the Irish champion trainer is expecting a hat-trick.

He is massively odds-on for the Queen Mother Champion Chase on the second day of the big meeting.

He is looking to add that prestigious prize to the Supreme Novices' Hurdle and Arkle Chase already on the mantlepiece.

Mullins is happy with how preparations are going for his superstar.

He said: "Douvan is in good order. Everything has gone well.

At this stage, we are just trying to get there in one piece.

"When you are going to Cheltenham with a favourite like Douvan, it is relief rather than joy when they win.

"When you have a 25-1 winner, that isn't expected, that is joy.

"There is fair bit of expectation with Douvan so you just want to keep him right and get there."

Mullins is full of admiration for the horse — and is even comparing him to the great Hurricane Fly.

That's some call given he won an amazing 22 Grade 1 races for Mullins including two Champion Hurdles at Cheltenham.

Mullins added: "I have said what I think of him.

"He could be the best I have had, although he has long way to go and has to get past Hurricane Fly, who did what he did.

"The bar is high for him, but we will see."

Mullins stable jockey Ruby Walsh is set for another big Festival — but he has some tough choices to make with so many nice horses available to ride.

He has a likely quartet to pick from, with the trainer expecting him to go for Melon.

Mullins said: "When you're looking at what Melon does at home, I'd say it will be an easy enough decision for Ruby.

"I think both Crack Mome and Cilaos Emery have good enough form to be placed in it, if not win it, if things go right for them."

CHALLENGE: Houghton

Houghton only has eyes for England

RUGBY LEAGUE

DANNY Houghton has ruled out playing for Scotland at this year's World Cup.

The 28-year-old Hull hooker says it's England or nothing at international level.

He qualifies to wear the dark blue because of his grandad.

And he did have brief talks about playing for the Scots in last year's Four Nations — before nailing his colours to England's mast.

Houghton said: "We had a little bit of a talk but nothing too in depth.

"My grandad was Scottish but I wouldn't want to disrespect Scotland.

"I've nailed my colours to England now so hopefully I can play for these.

"It would be great. It's something you dream of as a kid, to play in a World Cup."

Now all Houghton has to do is convince England coach Wayne Bennett that he's good enough to wear the jersey.

Count

He was behind Daryl Clark and Josh Hodgson in the pecking order last season but was named in a 30-man elite squad by the Aussie.

He has now trained with the squad and wants to make that count when the World Cup comes around.

Hodgson added: "It's good to get among it and introduce yourself to the boys.

"I've got used to the different terminology from the coaches.

"There's six sessions ahead and hopefully I can put my best foot forward in them and take some form into my club team."

Houghton is under no illusions as England have some quality hookers to choose from.

With James Roby also kicking about, it will take a big effort to get into Bennett's plans.

Houghton is prepared for the hard work ahead.

He said: "It's a position we've got pretty good talent in.

"The competition for places is there to see.

"I'll do all I can for my club team and when I come here so hopefully that will be enough to make the difference.

"But there's a long way still to go yet and I have to keep working as hard as I can."

THE WINNING POST

Paint the Town red

Kerry Lee's TOWN PARKS (NAP) looks set to double his tally over hurdles at Wincanton today.

By BEN MORGAN

His gutsy win at Ludlow last time was preceded by numerous good efforts in decent company and he is evidently getting his act together now.

Champion jockey, Richard Johnson has had a bit of time off recently with niggling injuries and I think this one will help soothe the pain and if all goes to plan he will only have to orchestrate an armchair ride as the competition doesn't look too strong today.

Paper

He has banker material written all over him.

CORNISH WARRIOR may well have benefited from a short mid-season break after putting up creditable efforts earlier in the year.

He posted an improved effort just before his break when chasing home the progressive Impulsive Star over 2m 4f.

He showed a liking for the extra distance that day and is tried over a little bit further again today at Wincanton which will be a big help.

It looks a tough race on paper with plenty in with a chance but I think Neil Mulholland's charge can improve past them all. Good each way bet.

STEEL NATIVE very nearly got his head in front for the first time last time out but ran into a much improved rival in Kim Bailey's Ben Arthur.

That was at the same track that he races on today and his liking for the long home straight could prove the deciding factor.

He gets a good few pound off his closest rival here, Fillie Des Champs, which has to help on this pretty testing ground.

With Nick Scholfield booked to ride I presume a bold show is expected.

MISTER GREZ has been a loyal servant to his connections and probably owes them very little.

He returned to form last time with a good run against a rival that was well in and a repeat of that performance should see him go close.

The forecast heavy ground at Ffos Las should help him plenty and even though at the age of 11 his best years are probably behind him, he is fairly lightly raced so I wouldn't be worried too much about younger rivals having a physical edge on him.

Excellent rider Bridget Andrews also gets on well with him and he looks to have a solid chance.

ON THE UP: Christian Fuchs

Fuchs ups are over for Foxes believes Christian

WATCH CHAMPIONS FLY NOW SAYS DEFENDER

By ANDY MILLOM

CHRISTIAN Fuchs says Leicester showed their true colours against Liverpool.

And he wants the Foxes to march up the table before the season ends.

Sacked Claudio Ranieri must have been tearing his hear out watching Leicester batter the Kop 3-1 on Monday night.

That lifted the champions out of the bottom three and if they keep playing in the same way, there's no way they will be going down.

And Fuchs thinks the players showed the sort of spirit that brought them the title last season.

The defender said: "There were lot of things written in the media but it fired us up and we wanted to show what we were made of.

"You saw the Leicester from last season.

"Every game for us is now a final, we want to stay in the league and we can build on that game.

"We were fired up from minute one. This season we were trailing a lot but were were going up 1-0, 2-0 and even 3-0.

"It's good for our game, it didn't happen too often until now."

Interim boss Craig Shakespeare did his chances of getting the job full-time no harm.

And he's making it clear that he fancies the challenge.

Shakespeare said: "Do I think I'm capable of it? Yes. Does it faze me? No.

"But I think it is the powers-that-be, the owners, who decide and do their job, it is their diligence to look. I am sure they will do that.

"It will take its course, they will sit down and I will try to prepare the team as rightly as I can for Hull unless told otherwise."

"We have tried to win games. I can honestly tell you we have tried to win games in the past. I've just been reminded of the Man City performance so we have done it in the past.

"Some of it is human nature. When people criticise you there is bound to be a reaction. I really couldn't put my finger on exactly why. I'm just pleased to get the three points.

"As a group we had to make sure we showed unity and togetherness."

HOPEFUL: Moyes

Moyes in New York state of mind

By MARK NAYLOR

DAVID Moyes hopes his team bonding trip to New York will eventually pay dividends.

Sunderland sit rock bottom of the Premier League after losing against Everton at the weekend.

There were positive signs at Goodison — but the result was the same.

Now time is beginning to run out for the Black Cats and Moyes is hoping for inspiration.

He hopes last week's trip to New York has helped team spirit.

Moyes said: "I hope it shows. I remember we went there with Everton and we came back and had a great run after it.

"I hope that run that I keep talking about is not too far away."

Moyes is coming in for stick for taking the players away in the same week that the club laid off some of its admin staff.

But he thinks it would be much worse if Sunderland crash into the Championship.

He added: "As a manager I have to find ways of winning. I said they are giving their all. I think they are lacking a bit of quality.

Unlikely

"I've got to find a bit of spirit, a bit of heart and a bit of toughness. I need them all that, when I'm getting on at them, that they are accepting it because they know it is for the best of the team."

Moyes is targeting an unlikely 10 wins from the Black Cats' remaining 12 games.

He said: "I've an idea that I'm going to have to win about 10 games to give myself any chance.

"So I've got a bit of work to do between now and the end of the season.

"I just believe that we'll get a good run somewhere along the line. I don't think it's too late.

"We've got a tough run – the next game is Man City so I'm not kidding myself.

"We're in a couple of games where we just have to stick with it.

"Sunderland have been in a lower state than this and come from behind.

"I still believe there's a run.

"I still think we can win three or four games somewhere – and we are going to have to do that in the run-in.

"I've got to believe it's going to happen — you never know in football."

MAN CITY v HUDDERSFIELD

IT was a remarkable effort by Championship Huddersfield to hold the mighty Man City to a goalless draw at the John Smith's Stadium.

The plucky Terriers though have little hope of escaping from the Etihad Stadium with anything other than their pride intact.

Town have some decent players, midfielder Phil Billing was exceptional in the first game and at just 20-years of age, he looks to have the potential to move on to better things.

When you look at the embarrassment of riches City have at their disposal it is hard to see anything other than a comfortable victory.

City's last game saw them win 5-3 against Monaco in the last 16 Champions League first leg tie at home.

If the Huddersfield Town defence watched that game they could be forgiven for having nightmares.

How will they stop Sane, Aguero, Silva, Sterling, De Bruyne and company? I don't think they will and to compact the problem for Huddersfield, City had a break at the weekend and will arrive here fresh.

Pep Guardiola has never been knocked out of a cup competition by lower league opposition in his managerial career and it would take a very brave punter to bet on that happening.

The reward is there for everyone to see, a quarter-final place against Middlesbrough is up for grabs, expect City to grab it with both hands.

We can't go punting 1/7 shots, so let's attack this from a different angle and come up with a plan to get you some more money off those horrible bookmakers.

I like the look of Leroy Sane to score and City to win at 13/8 and on that market John Stones scored against Monaco, if you fancy him to do it again and City to win you can get 10/1.

I fancy we will see plenty of goals from City and the 11/8 City to score four or more is appealing.

The safest punt of all though looks to be City to win half-time and full-time at 8/15 offered by Coral.

MIDWEEK TREBLE

★ The pick of the remaining action comes from north of the border. Hearts at 7/10 should have too much for Ross County.

The results have not been going their way of late and Ian Cathro will be desperate to see his team return to winning ways tonight.

Celtic travel to Inverness and should record a routine away win. They put five past St Johnstone in their last away fixture and Brendan Rodgers will surely guide his team to another big victory here.

TOO GOOD: De Bruyne

I'm not jumping on at 3/10, but going for the 5/6 on offer for the Celtic win machine to do it at half-time and full-time.

Last but by no means least let's get on Rangers to beat St Johnstone. It's not been a great for the former Scottish giants.

They have suffered back-to-back defeats and only won once in their last seven league matches.

They must return to winning ways tonight if they harbour any hopes of finishing second to Celtic.

7/10 is not a great price, but the Ibrox team should get the job done for us. Is the nine point gap too big or do you think Rangers can still catch Aberdeen?

GREYHOUND RACING

★ The £175,000 to-the-winner English Greyhound Derby at Towcester is edging closer to its May start date and the competition is hotting up.

The reigning Derby champion Jaytee Jet made the journey over from Ireland to trial before racing on Saturday night.

He ran the track superb and stopped the clock in a smart 29.79 -30 over the 500m Derby distance. While that run was superb, what happened next was out of this world.

His kennel companion Priceless Brandy trialled and he left the crowd in awe when he stopped the clock in a scintillating 29.29 -30.

That was the greatest trial every at Towcester by a dog having its first look.

The 28.99 calculated is well inside the 500m track-record and he looks to be the greyhound they all have to beat in the Derby.

He was 33/1 before this trial and now a best priced 25/1 with Boylesports.

My advice is jump on the 25/1 now, if he trials again those odds are likely to be slashed once more.

KOE WANTS ROO!

We'd love Wayne back says Goodison gaffer

EVERTON manager Ronald Koeman says he'd love to welcome Wayne Rooney back to Goodison Park.

The Man United and England skipper looks to be leaving Old Trafford — and he almost moved to China last week.

But Koeman has opened the door for the 31-year-old to make an emotional return to the club that made him.

The Dutchman is prepared to bankroll a massive wages offer to bring Rooney back to Goodison Park — and make a statement that Everton are bidding in the big leagues.

By JOHN ANTHONY

Koeman said: "I believe that Wayne Rooney is still playing at a high level.

"I think he made a good choice to stay at Manchester United and in the Premier League because he has still two or three years in front of him to play on a high level.

"What will happen at the end of the season? I don't know but in my opinion he is one of the players who can make Everton more stronger.

"It's all about what the player likes, what Manchester United needs to do with the player, and we are of course not involved in that project.

"But every player that we at Everton think can make the team stronger is welcome to Everton."

It would be a controversial move as Rooney copped plenty of stick from the Goodison faithful after he moved to Manchester in 2004.

That was after he made a massive impact for the Toffees after making his debut aged just 16 on the first day of the 2002/3 season.

He scored a memorable long-range strike against Arsenal before he had turned 17.

Everton's director of football Steve Walsh has also made it clear that he would love to sign Rooney.

Class

He said: "Wayne Rooney is one of the greatest players that has ever played the game in England and for us not to be interested would be wrong.

"He started his career here and if the opportunity arose that he could come back and it sat well with everyone it is something we would consider.

"He is a class apart, he sees things, and all the things that have been said about Wayne are true. He comes into that category of being one of England's greatest ever players, so why wouldn't we be interested?

"I think the whole thing would be euphoric. I think we could sell a lot of shirts, that's for sure.

"But let's not get ahead of ourselves. Wayne is contracted to Man United and made a decision to continue to play for them.

"Let's wait and see what happens in the future."

IN FOR WAZZA: Koeman

ONCE A BLUE: Rooney as a teenager

AND KOE WANTS ROSS TOO!

By ANDY MILLOM

WHILE Ronald Koeman has made no secret of his desire to sign Wayne Rooney, he has also given a big vote of confidence to Ross Barkley.

The England international has 18 months left on his contract at Goodison Park.

And the Dutchman would like him to extend that — despite not always seeing eye to eye with the Scouser.

Barkley has spent a fair chunk of this season on the bench but Koeman is adamant that his long-term future lies at Goodison Park.

The boss said: "Of course we'd like to keep Ross. I think he is the type of player I think you need in your team to create chances and score goals.

"Sometimes you have fights with players because I like to see more productivity and it's difficult for players to accept criticism but I think that's necessary to get the best out of the player.

"I have a lot of communication with Ross. He really is a good guy. He likes to improve and he'd like to stay at Everton.

"I think he's changed his football in a positive way and that's really important for himself and also the team as a whole."

Another player Everton are keen to tie down is Romelu Lukaku.

The big Belgian is coming dangerously near to the end of his contract and there would be no end of offers for the centre-forward.

Lukaku's agent Mino Raiola has been saying for a couple of months that new deal is 99% done.

But he hasn't signed it yet and that's left the door open for a big move — and could explain why Koeman is keen to talk about signing Wayne Rooney.

Everton director of football Steve Walsh said: "I think once you have success at a club, you have a feeling for it, and there is a real feeling that Everton is a club he is part and parcel of and I think he'd like to continue with that.

"For him to sign his contract is that logical next step and we are all hopeful that is going to happen."

Walsh says the new talent brought into Goodison means they should challenge for the top four.

He added: "The fact we have bought people like Morgan Schneiderlin sends out the message we want to get better and we will get better."

TOP TEAM: Lukaku and Barkley

NEW HERO: Lanzini

Lan's our main man says Obi

IT'S time for Manuel Lanzini to step up and show he's West Ham's star player.

That's the verdict of Pedro Obiang who thinks the Argie can fill Dimitri Payet's boots.

The Hammers sold the Frenchman to Marseille last month and Lanzini has more than stepped into the void so far.

He has scored against Crystal Palace and West Brom and supplied the ammo for his team-mates in the 3-1 victory over Middlesbrough.

Nobody at the London Stadium is surprised according to Obiang.

Plays

He said: "Manu is our number ten and he needs to demonstrate every time that he is now our top player, so we need to use him every time we have the ball, because he has confidence and he tries to create chances.

"Michail Antonio also did everything for the team, but it is no surprise because he can play with ease in every position.

"At the moment, he plays everywhere for the team and for himself and he tries to give everything.

"Sometimes he scores, but on Saturday he was unlucky because he hit two posts, but luckily Andre Ayew followed up to score."

Van to stay at Saints

SOUTHAMPTON chairman Ralph Krueger says there's ZERO chance of VIrgil Van Dijk walking out on the club.

The centre-back has been a revelation since moving to the south coast from Celtic in the summer.

His value has enhanced by how Southampton have struggled at the back since Van Dijk was injured a month ago.

Liverpool are thought to be leading the queue to launch a £50million bid for the 25-year-old with both Manchester clubs also thought to be interested.

But Krueger said: "We are just out of the January transfer window and are striving to keep this group together and to build on it.

"Virgil is very committed to us for a long time and we don't see anything but that in our future.

"He is our team captain and we don't see him anywhere else than in red and white stripes."

Get on 17/10 City win with goals

MAN City entertain Huddersfield this evening looking to book their place in the last eight of the FA Cup.

A glamour quarter-final with Middlesbrough at the Riverside Stadium later in the month awaits the winner.

City had the weekend off as they were due to play neighbours and League Cup winners Manchester United in the Premier League whilst the Terriers conceded a late equaliser at Oakwell in a Championship game they should have won.

Town are a good side but they are not in the class of City and promotion remains their primary objective for the season.

They are 12 points clear of the side in seventh place in the Championship table so a play-off spot looks assured but they will have had more than a passing interest in last night's game at the Amex between top-of-the-table Brighton and second placed Newcastle United.

City are 2/15 at BetVictor to win in 90 minutes with Town 17/1 and the draw 7s — City were fragile defensively but magnificent offensively against Monaco in the Champions League last time.

It is hard to see past a convincing home win although interestingly neither side has yet to concede a goal in the competition so far this season after a goalless draw in Yorkshire.

City to win to nil is 4/5 but I favour the 17/10 for City to win and both sides to find the back of the net.

Back in the Premier League and the battle for the four Champions' League places is hotting up following Liverpool's defeat at the King Power earlier in the week.

Amazing that the Reds have now lost four games in the league this season to sides who kicked off the game in the relegation zone.

It is well documented how well they play against the top sides but their poor form against sides near the foot of the table must be so infuriating for all involved with the club.

By the way didn't Liverpool miss the passion and energy of Jordan Henderson against the Foxes.

We have updated our prices on sides finishing inside/outside the top four this term and bet:

Team	Top 4	Not 4
City	2/15	4/1
Spurs	3/10	5/2
Arsenal	8/11	Evens
Man U	10/11	10/11
Liverpool	Evens	8/11
Everton	80/1

Those prices will change again at the weekend with the Merseyside clubs meeting the north London sides and Everton might fancy their chances of getting something at the Lane given both Toby Alderweireld and Jan Vertonghen must be considered doubts after limping off against Stoke on Sunday.

Harry Kane and Romelu Lukaku are tied at the top of the PL goalscoring charts on seventeen and whoever comes out on top of their mini-battle could be pivotal.

BetVictor are non-runner no bet on all 28 Cheltenham races from noon when the weights for the handicaps are announced.

It's less than two weeks to the start of the greatest show on turf but more immediately Spiculas (4.00) can bounce back after a poor run at Sedgefield last time on his second start back from a long lay-off.

IN A RAGE: Jurgen Klopp

It was like a friendly fumes furious Klopp

JURGEN Klopp has blasted his players for strolling around during their defeat against Leicester.

The German was fuming after going down 3-1 at the King Power — against a team that hadn't scored a goal in 2017 going into the match.

He raged at his flops, accusing them of behaving like it was a pre-season game and lacking any passion or desire to fight the Foxes.

SACKED: Ranieri

Klopp said: "It was not good enough in the beginning, it was not good enough in the middle and it was not good enough in the end.

"I think it was 100 per cent clear what would happen from the Leicester side. They'd go back to their roots, the line-up was clear, I was 100 per cent sure they would bring Okazaki back.

"It was clear how emotional the game would be, because if Leicester cannot show emotion tonight that would have been really strange.

"But in the end it was not even THAT intense, and yet we were still not ready for this.

"We tried to be absolutely ready from the first second, but trying was not good enough.

"It looked like a friendly game.

"It is our responsibility. It doesn't make it better, we don't want to make excuses but the job that we have to do is to react on it, and react again, and react again.

"Everybody who has followed us this season knows how good we can be, so it makes it even harder to accept a performance like that.

"Consistency is about doing what you need to do, all the time. What we have done is brought ourselves into a situation where people can doubt our attitude, and that's really our fault, our mistake.

"I cannot change the result now, but what we can do is work on it. There is no other solution.

"Everyone has to see that we are only here for one reason — winning."

ALL SMILES: Dele Alli

Alli honoured to link up with goal king Kane

DELE Alli says it's an "honour" to play alongside Harry Kane for Tottenham and England.

The pair have formed a potent partnership over the past couple of seasons — and linked up well in the 4-0 spanking of Stoke on Sunday.

Kane has made the most of the ammo supplied by Alli and has banged in 17 league goals this season.

The former MK Dons playmaker says he loves taking to the pitch with such a potent striker.

Alli said: "We always speak about the opposition before a game.

"We tell each other what we're going to be looking to do, then try to put it into action.

"He's a fantastic player. You know that if you play the ball through to him, then nine times out of 10 he's going to find the back of the net.

"It's an honour to play with a striker like that.

Form

"His all-round play is fantastic. He holds the ball up and can bring other players into the game as well as score.

"He works so hard, too: if you do play him a bad ball, he'll work hard to make it a good one."

Spurs boss Mauricio Pochettino believes Kane is one of the best strikers on the planet and called him "world class" after his hat-trick against the Potters.

The man himself is happy for people to give him that label — and he believes he can live up to it. Kane said: "I feel that if you look at my stats and my goals, then I am up there. If people want to say and write that, I am more than happy.

"I feel in good form. My best form ever? I think so. I feel fresh, I feel sharp. I feel in good shape.

"The ankle injury I had earlier in the season might have done me a bit of good, getting a bit more rest.

"I've had a good couple of months so it's important I continue that until the end of the season.

"As a striker, you always want to win the Golden Boot.

"There are a lot of top strikers up there at the minute and there are still a lot of games to play.

"It would be brilliant to retain it. It is up there in my house and I would like another one.

"I know I will score goals and it is nice to break that 20-goal mark again. Hopefully I can continue to 25, 30.

"That is always the aim, to get there."

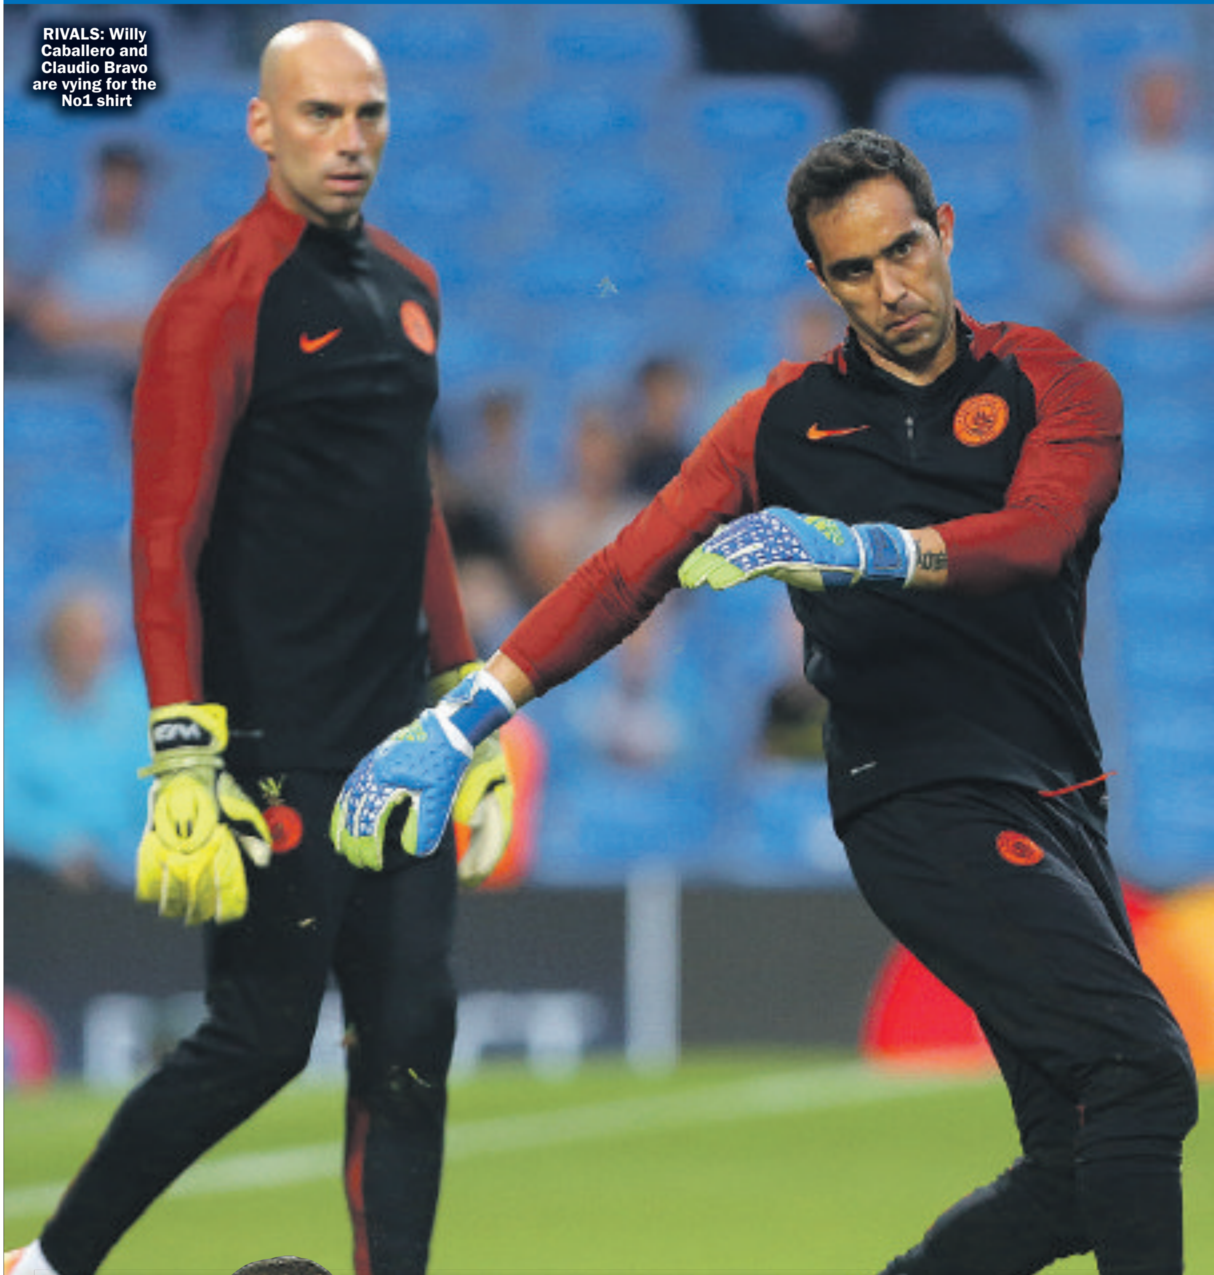
FA CUP FIFTH ROUND REPLAY:



RIVALS: Willy Caballero and Claudio Bravo are vying for the No1 shirt

PEP LIKES LOOK OF £50M MBAPPE

MANCHESTER City are ready to break the bank this summer for Monaco starlet Kylian MBappe.

The 18-year-old was one of the French side's star players in the first leg of the Champion League clash with the Citizens.

He was instrumental in Monaco's attacking play, scoring one and setting up another as they raced into a shock 3-1 lead at the Etihad.

Although City managed to bite back and take a lead to southern France, MBappe was the best player on the pitch.

Barcelona are sniffing around as well so there's no chance of getting the teenager for any less than £50million.

But it could be money well spent for a player who is being hailed as the best thing to come out of Monaco since Thierry Henry.

He has scored seven league goals this season and took Henry's record of being the youngest player ever to score for the principality side.

City want to get the deal done quick — not only to stop Barcelona but to wade off interest from Juventus and other Premier League sides. Arsene Wenger would be interested in a deal this summer — provided the former Monaco manager is still at Arsenal by then.

FINDERS KEEPERS FOR CITY

By PAUL THOMAS

PEP Guardiola admits he doesn't know who his No1 goalkeeper is.

After shipping out Joe Hart in the summer, the Spaniard put his faith in new arrival Claudio Bravo.

City fans were quickly worried by the new stopper — particularly when it appeared that he was uncapable of saving pretty much any shot.

After half a season of wobby displays by Bravo, Guardiola gave Willy Caballero his chance.

The 35-year-old hasn't done a lot wrong since being handed the shirt — although he's hardly the world-class stopper you would expect to see in a City shirt.

Game

So it will be interesting to see if Bravo plays against Huddersfield in tonight's FA Cup replay.

He turned out in the first leg at the John Smith's Stadium but Guardiola hasn't made up his mind about the replay.

The Man City boss said: "I have to think about it, not just with our goalkeepers.

"I have to think about it after training and in the morning. I decide from what I see and game by game."

Guardiola hopes the rest his players have had over the past few days will help brush the Terriers aside.

He added: "We were one week out. It is not how tired they are, more a final against one team who impressed a lot when we played there.

TOUGH CHOICE: Pep Guardiola

"They are top of the Championship and sometimes teams top of the Championship are stronger than some of the teams in the Premier League."

One man who won't be donning a City shirt is Vincent Kompany.

The club captain is nearing full fitness after his latest injury setback but the Huddersfield game has come a couple of days too soon.

Guardiola added: "He is much better but won't be ready for this game. He will be back in the first team soon but not yet."

The City squad is just back from warm weather training in Dubai and the boss is hopeful that batteries are recharged for the rest of the campaign.

Guardiola added: "We were together in a different place. We found the sun. We had dinner together and, didn't think too much about football.

"It was a short trip but it was nice. We just trained and cleared our minds. We got some sun, stretched our legs and that was basically it."

The trip to the middle east also gave a chance to speak to owner Sheikh Mansour.

Although he can't be happy about City's no-show in the title race, Guardiola says the talks were all positive.

He admitted: "We met Sheikh Mansour for the first time and I was impressed how he knew everything about us and it was nice to spend some time with him.

"He is so happy. He sees all the games and he sees the effort.

"He knows we fight until the end, and it was nice because it's important for us to know the president. That's why it was good."

Proud

Guardiola also had some words for Claudio Ranieri, saying he's sympathetic to the Italian's plight after his shock sacking by defending champions Leicester.

He said: "I think Claudio has to be proud.

"I saw the game against Liverpool, it was his legacy. The way Leicester play was outstanding.

"In 50 years' time people will talk about what Leicester achieve with this group.

"The best legacy, the first game when he left, Leicester play like last season.

"He is going to find immediately a new job.

"But yes of course I was surprised at the decision of Leicester."

BAN: Wagner and Monk

Wagner misses big night on bench

HUDDERSFIELD boss David Wagner will have to watch the City clash from the stands after copping a touchline ban.

The fiery German is big mates with Liverpool boss Jurgen Klopp and sometimes makes his antics on the sidelines look mild.

Wagner crossed swords with Leeds boss Garry Monk after their game at the John Smith's Stadium last month.

There was a right fracas on the sidelines in the last minute when both bosses overstepped the line and the players all waded in to back up their boss.

Then Wagner overdid the celebrations at the final whistle when Monk squared up to the German.

It takes some of the shine off the tie for Huddersfield who are also challenging for promotion to the Premier League.

After taking on City, the Terriers have a crucial clash against Newcastle coming up at the top of the Championship.

For Town's Michael Hefele, the Toon clash is more important than making the FA Cup quarter-finals.

Feeling

When asked where his priorities lay, the big defender said: "That is easy, the most important are the Championship games.

"They are the most important, all of the time.

"The secret now is to perform, perform and perform.

"That is the Huddersfield way and our unbeaten run goes on and it is a good feeling to have that."

He heads across the Pennines on a high after scoring against Barnsley at the weekend.

Hefele enjoyed the atmosphere at Oakwell and it's certain to be another big occasion at the Etihad tonight.

He added: "I do like Yorkshire derbies.

"I am used to it now and I like the emotion and with a big away crowd like that all backing you, it is lovely, I like it so much.

"As for the goal, we try it in training and it was a perfect corner and the runs in the box were ideal.

"I am very happy about my goal and header."
